

Universal Voucher Bill (HB290) Will Cost School Districts A Huge Amount of Money

Charter and voucher students are funded from the School Foundation Aid line item historically assigned to school districts. HB290 would remove nearly $1 billion for students that are currently homeschooled and those who are currently enrolled on private tuition.