

5 Reasons Why the EdChoice Program Violates Ohio's Constitution

1. The EdChoice Program violates a strict interpretation of the Ohio Constitution.
2. The EdChoice Program is leaching funding from public schools, preventing a “thorough and efficient” system of common schools as is required by the Ohio Constitution.
3. The EdChoice Program makes segregation worse in Ohio.
4. The EdChoice Program is funding religiously affiliated schools, which violates Ohio's Constitution.
5. EdChoice violates Ohio's constitutional requirement that “Government is instituted for [the people's] equal protection and benefit.”
