Center for Christian Virtue (CCV) Exploits Columbus Teacher Strike to Promote the Universal Voucher Bill (HB290)

The whole hog voucher machine (CCV) is exploiting the teachers' strike in Columbus to recruit voucher students. Billboards around Columbus will direct folks to a website of the Ohio Christian Education Network (a network of the Center for Christian Virtue) which states that Columbus Schools are failing students and provides a procedure to get a voucher and a list of private voucher schools available. Conspicuously absent from their private school listing are dozens of other private voucher schools that accept vouchers.
