

CC3342 9.20.22 Tuesday

Buckeye Institute is Lobbying for State Policy That Would Require All Districts to Participate in Open Enrollment.

Open enrollment has been allowed in Ohio for three decades; however, districts are not required to participate. Buckeye Institute is pushing a state policy that would allow students to attend any public school district in Ohio, regardless of their district of residence.