

CC3387 11.15.22 Tuesday

November 9 Cincinnati Enquirer Opinion Article Regarding School Vouchers: Benefits of School Vouchers Are Small, Tenuous at Best

Dr. Christopher Lubienski writes about the negative outcomes of vouchers. Lubienski is the Director of the Center for Evaluation and Policy Analysis at Indiana University. His conclusion is that vouchers, in general, hurt students academically, but voucher promoters continue the campaign by declaring that it is a parent's right to public funds for private schooling.