

March 8 Webinar—Litigating Against Private School Vouchers

This is a timely Webinar in that the EdChoice voucher program in Ohio is being challenged. The Education Law Center (ELC) has been involved in several voucher cases throughout the nation.

REGISTER NOW FOR 3/8 WEBINAR:

Litigating Against Private School Vouchers

Join Education Law Center and Public Funds Public Schools on Wednesday, March 8, from 4:00-5:30 p.m. EST for a webinar entitled, “Litigating Against Private School Vouchers.”

Experienced attorneys will discuss lawsuits challenging recent voucher laws and decisions in those cases, including: the West Virginia Supreme Court’s reversal of a lower court’s decision to block a statewide universal voucher program; a victory against Kentucky’s tax credit voucher law at the state Supreme Court; and a pending challenge to New Hampshire’s Education Savings Account voucher law. The panel will also discuss participation in voucher litigation through amicus curiae (“friend of the court”) briefs.

Moderator: Professor Janel George, Georgetown University Law Center

Panelists:

- Raymond Pierce, Southern Education Foundation
- Tamerlin Godley, Paul Hastings
- Daniel McNeil, American Federation of Teachers
- Alice O'Brien, National Education Association
- Kristen Hollar, National Education Association

Register Now

Please note that the webinar will not be recorded. If you have any questions about the webinar, please contact Nicole Ciullo at nciullo@edlawcenter.org.