

CC3501 4.21.23 Friday

The current House version of the state budget proposal (HB33) outdoes the Governor's recommendation for voucher expansion.

The Governor recommended in his state budget proposal that voucher income eligibility be raised from 250% of federal poverty level to 400%. The current House version would raise that to 450%. The Senate will no doubt outdo the House level.