

School vouchers fought over in Ohio legislature, courts by Tom Jackson

A lengthy article by Tom Jackson of Ogden Ohio Newspapers provides a perspective on the voucher debate. The pro-voucher folks quoted in the article are confident that the Senate will out-voucher the Governor and House of Representatives and universal vouchers will open up choice to everyone, not just the rich folks.

No doubt the Senate will attempt to legislate universal vouchers, but the rich will be the primary benefactors of the universal voucher arrangement.
