

Taxpayers beware! If the families of Bill Gates, Les Wexner, Warren Buffett and all the billionaires in the USA lived in Ohio, they would be eligible for Ohio tax-funded vouchers.

Ohio taxpayers should be outraged with the Senate President-owned universal voucher scheme in Ohio.

The voucher venture started with Governor George Voinovich's "bleeding heart liberal plea" that the poor kids of Cleveland must be rescued from the Cleveland school districts and distributed primarily to the parochial schools for treatment and rehab. That supplication was the epitome of duplicity to gain for the voucher scheme a foot-in-the-door entry into the public treasury.

The HB33 universal voucher stratagem engineered by the Senate President is the endgame of the 1990's voucher schemers.
