

CC3616 9.18.23 Monday

Senate President to the Columbus Dispatch regarding expansion of vouchers: “This program will grow; I think it will grow exponentially.”

The Senate President envisions exponential growth of the voucher program. No wonder. He and his legislative comrades will continue their campaign to divert the public education funds to private schools. They will drive the exponential growth. The universal voucher scheme is merely the beginning of the hostile takeover of public education funds.