

The Texas House of Representatives during regular session and 4 special sessions called by the Governor to approve school vouchers voted to defeat the voucher proposal.

Rural Republican representatives were key in defeating the voucher proposal which went down 84-63.

Where are the Ohio rural Republican legislators on the voucher issue? In many, if not most, rural school districts the common school is the largest employer. The rural school is typically the meeting place, the community center of the district.