

Voters in three statewide elections reject vouchers

The voters in Colorado, Kentucky, and Nebraska turned down school vouchers. Although vouchers in previous elections have been on statewide ballots in several states, none have ever passed.

Colorado tried to amend the state Constitution to constitutionalize the right to school choice.

In Kentucky, voucher zealots attempted to constitutionalize the right to vouchers, which went down in flames.

Nebraska voters repealed a Nebraska law that authorized vouchers.

\(4\) Even In A Red Wave, Voters Reject School Vouchers