

Steve Dyer: Poor kids fleeced in proposed state budget

In his February 4 10th Period, Steve wonders if the Cupp/Patterson Fair School Funding Plan will survive the final phase-in, inasmuch as the House Speaker has already announced that the final phase-in component is “unsustainable”. His data sets demonstrate that the EdChoice voucher scheme to enrich the wealthy private school families is at the expense of poor kids and their families.

Click here to read Steve’s discourse. It is exceedingly informative.