Steve Dyer weighs in on the State Budget plan to rob school districts of local property tax money while having $4 billion in the state rainy day fund.

Attorney Steve Dyer's April 9 and April 10, 10th Period should alert the public education community to the nefarious mischief of some of the members of the 136th General Assembly.

How much more evidence will it take to convince some people that the political leadership of Ohio really does plan to kill off the constitutionally mandated public common school system.
