

Catholic Conference of Ohio wants Disadvantaged Pupil Impact Aid

In recent testimony before the Senate Education Committee, an administrator of the Catholic Conference of Ohio requested that Disadvantaged Pupil Impact Aid (DPIA) should be extended to nonpublic schools. The private school appetite for tax money is growing exponentially. Vouchers, nonpublic administrative cost reimbursement, auxiliary services, and student transportation are not enough to satisfy the Catholic Conference of Ohio. Now DPIA is requested. What next? Buildings? Salary supplements? Student uniforms?
