

10th District Court of Appeals will hear the EdChoice voucher case in 2026.

All the “paperwork” necessary for the 10th District Court of Appeals to hear the EdChoice voucher case is due January 13, 2026. It is anticipated that the 10th District Court will begin to hear oral arguments in late spring or early summer 2026.

Meanwhile, boards of education that have not joined the litigation effort should be doing so.
