

Some Ohio private school tuition rates are in the range of $30,000. A private school in Houston charges $52,000. Even with an Ohio $8,400 voucher, most poor folks would not be able to enroll in these private schools.

The average private high school tuition rate in Ohio is $11,233. On average, poor kids will not be enrolling in private schools. The voucher project that was designed to allow a private school education for poor kids, now excludes poor kids.

Voucher policy was initiated by using poor kids as a ploy to ultimately transfer public school funds to private school patrons who have the financial resources to pay their own way.
