

April 28 Policy Brief from Policy Matters Ohio: Even more public money for private schools.

Policy Matters Ohio, a highly regarded policy organization, in an April 28, 2025, brief, provides the evidence of the runaway voucher explosion in the House version of the state budget.

Piet Van Lier, author of the brief has calculated that taxpayers would be on the hook for an additional $432 million for private school tuition over the next two fiscal years. He provides details on the voucher scheme proposed for the nonchartered, nonpublic schools that are totally unregulated and unmonitored.

Mandates and additional monitoring devices are heaped on school districts each biennium while less and less transparency, accountability and monitoring are applied to privatized schooling.
