

League of Women Voters to members of the Ohio House: Whose education will be sacrificed if public schools are underfunded in this biennium.

The League of Women Voters of Ohio (LWVO) has always been passionate in support of public education. LWVO Education Specialist Susan Kaeser did a time-intensive deep dive into school enrollment in the constitutionally mandated public schools, charter schools, and private schools.

The attachment is a summary of the data which was sent to legislators. The clear message is that inadequate support for school districts hurt students in all 88 counties.

This LWVO research is more evidence that Vouchers Hurt Ohio. The Ohio Coalition for Equity and Adequacy of School Funding's lawsuit challenges the constitutionality of the EdChoice voucher scheme because it hurts Ohio—students, taxpayers and school districts.
