

John Fortney, the Ohio Senate Director of Communications, on February 5, 2025, wrote a piece of blather—Ohio's School Funding System is Constitutional.

Such hogwash and blarney is so simpleminded that it is not worthy of response. However, it is attached to inform folks the cast of minds of the Ohio Senate leadership regarding school funding. (It is assumed that the official spokesperson for the Senate is merely reflecting the position of the Senate leadership.)

The very title of the piece is doltish and empty-headed. The bottom-line message of the Ohio Senate is that the school funding system is constitutional because the Senate leadership says that it is. The Senate leadership must believe that it speaks for the Court as well as the Senate.

The School Funding System in Ohio is Constitutional