

Senate President, in different words, echoing the House Speaker's declaration that the Cupp/Patterson Fair School Funding Plan is "unsustainable".

House Speaker: Cupp/Patterson is "unsustainable".

Senate President: Fair school funding formula may not be as appealing as it seems.

Different words, same message.

Both leaders are signaling their opposition to their constitutional responsibility to secure a thorough and efficient system of common schools. .

Both are out of touch with an overwhelming majority of Ohioans. When will Ohioans start resisting autocratic state leadership?
