The book, “Right Down the Drain” is available.

Three years ago, Dr. Thomas Poetter, professor at Miami University, and about a dozen graduate students wrote a book entitled, Vouch for This!: Defunding Private Interests, Defending Public Schools. Dr. Poetter involved me in a couple of class sessions and I wrote the preface.

Early this spring, Dr. Poetter and I talked about another book on vouchers. He assembled a dozen advanced Miami University graduate students to write a sequel, Right Down the Drain: The costs of siphoning billions in Ohio public funding into private school vouchers.

In this book, Judge Eric Brown wrote the preface and I wrote the foreward. Dr. Poetter and the grad students researched the voucher issue and wrote Right Down the Drain.

Thus far we have distributed about 1000 books.

Another batch of the book will be delivered next week. Please read the book and pass it on!
